Any exceptions must first be approved by Exhibition Management in writing. Audio-visual aids may not be placed in a way that interrupts line of sight with adjacent booths. The use of speakers and other sound equipment is permitted so long as the noise level does not disrupt the activities of neighboring booths. Carpet is required in all booths at the expense of the exhibitor.

3. Payment and Cancellation

The full amount of the booth rental/sponsorship must accompany contract. Refer to the cancellation terms on the exhibit space/sponsorship agreement for further clarification.

4. Use of Space

No exhibitor shall permit any other corporation or firm or its representatives to use the space allotted to him, nor shall he display articles not manufactured or normally sold by him. Requests for co-participation by any other corporation or firm or its representatives in space assigned to the original applicant must be made in writing to Exhibition Management. If permission is granted by Exhibition Management, there will be an additional charge of $150.00 per day for each additional participant for the run of the particular conference or convention. Exhibitors shall not sublet booths or assign this lease in whole or in part without the prior consent of the organizers.

5. Limitation of Liability

The exhibitor shall indemnify the organizers against all claims, demands, actions, expenses, damages, penalties, or proceedings arising out of or in any way connected with the exhibitor's occupancy and use of the exhibition premises or any part thereof. Exhibitors should make their own insurance agreements.

7. Protection of the Exhibit Hall Facility

All displays must be in place and set up by the time of the official opening of the show. Space not occupied or set up by that time may be reassigned for other purposes. No exhibits shall be dismantled before the official closing time of the show. The exhibitor must comply with all union regulations applicable to installation/dismantle and display of exhibits.

9. Default Occupancy

Any exhibitor failing to occupy space which has been contracted is not relieved of the obligation of paying for such space at the full rental price, and the Exhibition Management shall have the right to use such space as it sees fit to eliminate empty space in the exhibit hall, provided such booth space is not occupied by one (1) hour before the official show opening.
